After having worked alongside Elton John on the new “The Lion King” soundtrack, Beyoncé recently revealed a music video for the song, “Spirit”. With a combination of excerpts from the new live action version of the film that include scenes shot in the desert, we urge you to take a closer look at the American superstar in a series of different looks put together by her stylist Zerina Akers.

From a dramatic Valentino haute couture dress, and a Maison Alexandrine pearl-encrusted robe, to a graphic Tongoro ensemble, take a closer look at Beyoncé’s may outfits in the “Spirit” video from The Lion King.
